

DIYANET
CENTER OF AMERICA

Welcome to Diyanet Center of America! We are happy to host you!

The DCA is a religious entity of the Islamic faith, and we aim to provide a welcoming environment that complies with the Islamic code. To that end, we have detailed below a set of rules and regulations for our guests to follow if they plan to visit the DCA premises.

Dress Code

Inside the Mosque

- Men and women must wear modest and respectful attire.
- Shoes must be removed before entering the mosque.
- Women must cover all parts of the body except the face and hands.
 - ✓ The dress must be loose and not revealing.
 - ✓ The head-cover and clothing must be opaque.
 - ✓ Transparent/Translucent covers are not acceptable.
 - ✓ The head-cover must be securely fastened so that it does not fall off.

Outside the Mosque

- Women can remove their head-cover outside the prayer area but must maintain a modest appearance on the DCA premises.
- Women must securely cover their back, chest, shoulders, arms, waist, and legs (revealing outfits, open garments, and open Saree are not allowed).

Code of Conduct

Inside the Mosque

- Guests must show good manners and maintain a calm and quiet demeanor.
- Phones must be silent.
- Guests must not engage in any physical displays of affection, such as hugging or kissing.
- Guests must not make any changes to the mosque (such as moving chairs or installing fixtures) without the permission of a DCA representative.
- Guests must refrain from any activity that could cause damage or hazard to the property.
- Guests must refrain from eating or drinking inside the mosque.

Outside the Mosque

- No public displays of affection on the DCA campus.
- Guests must refrain from any activity that could cause damage or hazard to the property.
